UK Outlook for Sunday 12 Sep 2021 to Sunday 26 Sep 2021:
Confidence is low during this period. An unsettled spell is most likely for the middle of September, the focus for this toward the west or northwest of the UK, with the south and southeast perhaps holding on to drier weather. Toward the end of the month, it looks like a trend toward drier weather will begin, especially across the south. Temperatures are likely to be near to or a little above average for the time of year.
